INTERESTING ITEMS FROM EL VERANO AND SONOMA.

Weekly Record of all the Happenings in the Valley as Faithfully Recorded by Our Wide-Awake Reporter, "Archie McKiver."

Leon Mouyer of Berkeley was visiting here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bomhoff were visitors to Santa Rosa Sunday.

Miss Cecelia Dowdall was here from the city Sunday visiting her folks.

A. Chevalier transacted business in the metropolis Saturday and Sunday.

Frank Labaye and family of San Francisco are here for the summer months.

Detective Michael Burke of the metropolis is registered at the El Verano Villa.

Edwin Faithful leaves next Tuesday for a month's visit with friends in Victoria.

The usual large crowd of San Francisco excursionists were here Sunday. Many remained to spend the week.

Crane's Hotel is receiving a new coat of white paint. Two crack painters of San Francisco are doing the work.

The Dowdall brothers have started their hay press and are busy bailing hay in the different sections of the valley.

Lester McKinnin of San Francisco, after spending a week at the N. Dowdall residence, returned home Sunday.

Misses May Kearney and Irene, Mary and Annie Dowdall leave for Dillon's Beach Thursday for a few weeks' outing.

Hank Moore of Spreckels ranch was at the ball game last Sunday all dolled up in a new Panama hat. Some class, Hank.

El Verano was well represented at the ball game which was held Sunday at Boyes for the benefit of the Black Point cut-off.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hoffman and family, accompanied by H. Peters, spent Flag Day in San Francisco where they attended a German high jinks.

There are now 1010 inmates at the Sonoma State Home at Eldridge and of these 569 are males, 461 females and there are twenty-three on parole.

Attorney Jack Ford and wife, accompanied by former Supervisor Hart and son Blair, motored over from Lakeville Sunday and took in the ball game at Boyes.

Mrs. J. K. Bigelow and mother, Mrs. Houp, accompanied by Geo. Mizue, Jap foreman on the Guy Bigelow ranch, left for Los Angeles on last Saturday afternoon's S. P. train.

Who says Sonoma Valley is dry? The latest is that the road houses will next be opened, and then things will prosper. Any one can see that since they have been closed the valley has been going on the bum.

The El Verano correspondent of the Sonoma Valley Expositor seems to be a little hasty in reporting births. The following item appeared in that sheet last Friday evening, June 13: "Born in El Verano to the wife of Mr. Claude Kirkman a girl." The fact of the matter is that a bouncing baby boy arrived Saturday, June 14, at the Kirkman home. The writer is a poor guesser and should get the right dope before publishing an item. This reporter is just a little bit hasty in reporting births.

Otto Spindler of San Francisco was here Sunday and Monday.

Arthur McGill of Lakeville was in town last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. C. Waterman of San Francisco is a guest at the John Serres' residence.

Dick Sherlock, a San Francisco capitalist, is registered at the El Verano Villa.

Mrs. L. L. Lewis of Berkeley visited on her ranch the latter part of last week.

F. Clewe of Sonoma was an S. P. passenger for Sacramento on Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Annan were guests at the Serres residence Saturday and Sunday.

F. Birdsall, a guide in Chinatown, San Francisco, is registered at the French Cottage.

N. Cantor, proprietor of Cantor's Villa, transacted business in the metropolis Monday.

Miss Maud Tripp, a charming young lady of San Francisco, is registered at the El Verano Villa.

Wm. Dwyer and wife of Benicia were the guests Sunday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ryan.

"Howling" Roy Chance was among the many who witnessed the ball game Sunday at Boyes Springs.

Mrs. Maurice O'Dowd and family of San Francisco arrived Monday to spend the summer at their cottage here.

W. H. Gunther, a San Francisco attorney, was a guest at the Wheatland residence the fore part of the week.

The public in general is invited to Charley Miller's Villa any afternoon at three o'clock to watch the fighting motormen go through his training stunts. He boxes several rounds with the famous colored heavyweights, Bob Armstrong, who ten years back fought such men as Corbett, Fitzsimmons, Sharkey and Jeffries and was a leading trainer in all the big heavyweight camps. Bob is a finished boxer worth seeing in action and will have Miller in shape when the gong clangs for his four-round bout with the human sky-scraper, Jess Willard.

"Let's all crow," Bigelow has been thrown down again. This time the Supreme Court gave him the hook on his thirty-five room proposition and it is a goner, for sure. It is reported that Guy himself made out this amendment which was carried at the last election and when it landed in the Supreme Court it fell all to pieces. There was no head or tail to it but the real fact is that his prohibition lawyers at Santa Rosa made out the would-be law. Now, if the supervisor see fit they can hand out a license to any man running a saloon, whether he has two-rooms or a hundred. Supervisor Weise has made a good start and will no doubt do the right thing by the small saloon man. All the writer can say is that after all Bigelow's trouble making he has gained nothing and is no better off now than when he started. This back-set should make the agitator go away back and sit down. He is now a dead one in the Sonoma Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Wheatland visited in San Francisco the first of the week.

Thos. Tull of San Francisco has been engaged by H. P. Mathewson to conduct the Gables Bar this summer.

O. T. Wilkinson and William Bonhoff, well-known laundry men, were visitors at Santa Rosa last Friday.

B. Weatherhead, who represents the M. T. Minney Water Co., transacted business at Oakland one day last week.

Sam Stahl's smiling face is much in evidence at Boyes Springs dances each evening. Sam's ragging is simply marvelous.

John Serres, Sr., accompanied by A. Bailliarious of San Francisco, was a guest at the Serres residence Friday and Saturday.

H. H. Granice, popular editor of the Sonoma Index-Tribune, passed through here from Sonoma last Saturday en route to San Francisco.

Arthur and Willie Baines, two prominent young society chaps of this place, are on their annual camping trip in the western foothills.

John Dutil came up from San Francisco Sunday. He returned Monday morning to St. Mary's Hospital where he will undergo an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Martin of the Riverside Hotel had a number of local guests Sunday evening at a goose supper and an enjoyable evening was spent.

Ed. Numan, one of the proprietors of the Hibernia Brewery, San Francisco, was here Sunday visiting his wife, who is a guest at the El Verano Villa.

Mrs. Chas. Kottinger and family came up from San Francisco Saturday and will reside in their new summer bungalow, recently built at Agua Caliente, during the summer.

Harry and Leo Baines, accompanied by Carl Weaver, went to San Francisco Monday afternoon where the former will purchase an overland seven-passenger touring car with an electric self starter.

Joe Haden, Mayor of Verano, has returned from a machine trip to Santa Cruz and other cities. Joe is back in the chair and will now devote his time to the go-ahead of the valley.

There is much talk here of El Verano starting a ball team. When organized the boys will go after the Sonoma team's goat. John Basilou is starting the new team and with John at the head something will be doing.

Edmond Debats, while engaged in picking cherries for Charley Miller Friday, June 13, got on a rotten limb which gave way, landing the young man on the ground and laying him up for repairs several days this week.

I. Dank of San Francisco has leased the Flora Villa for the summer season. Mr. Dank is well-known in the metropolis and promises to have a large crowd of summer guests at the popular resort during the summer season.

George Batchelor, who was a resident of Sonoma twenty-six years ago, is here from San Francisco on a camping trip. This is the first trip to the Sonoma Valley that Mr. Batchelor has made since leaving and is surprised the way the valley has prospered.

Roadmaster Serres is busily engaged widening the bridge between the Bellevue Hotel and S. P. depot. This bridge has caused lots of trouble ever since it was built and several accidents have occurred. This is some more of Supervisor Weise's good work, whose aim is to satisfy the people of his district and good build good roads.

Everything is quiet along the line and it looks as if any one who is to be recalled it would be the big "Guy" himself for getting such a joker for the people to vote on. Thirty-five rooms or no license, you won, Guy, so now stay with it and leave one of the best Supervisors that this district has ever had alone and attend to your own business for the people are not going to fall any more for your bull.

Charley Miller, Verano's White Hope, assisted by Bob Armstrong, the colored wonder of ten years back, is rounding himself into perfect condition for his four round contest with Tom Jones' wonder, Jess Willard. The battle will take place at Dreamland Rink, San Francisco on June 27, and a hurricane mill is looked for. A number of the natives from here will be on hand to cheer big Charley to victory.

BEAR FLAG MONUMENT BILL SIGNED BY GOVERNOR

The bill introduced in the Assembly last winter by Assemblyman Slater, providing for an appropriation of $5,000 for the erection of a Bear Flag monument on the Old Plaza of Sonoma over the exact spot where the Bear Flag was flung to the breeze in those strenuous days of 1846, was signed by Governor Johnson last Monday evening.

The news was received by the members of Sonoma Parlor, No. 111, N. S. G. W., with great rejoicing, as the movement was inaugurated by them and carried through to a successful issue, thanks to Assemblyman Slater and his fellow members of the Legislature and Governor Johnson, who signed the bill.

On Tuesday evening there was an impromptu celebration in this city to rejoice over the event in which speech-making, martial music, and beating of drums played a leading part amid the wild huzzas of the over-rejoicing Native Sons of our local parlor in which they were joined by almost the entire populace.

The demonstration started in early in the evening with a parade around the plaza led by the Native Sons drum corps and the Sonoma Valley Band. This was followed by addresses in Union Hall by Prof. Jesse Prestwood, representing the Native Sons, Mayor Cummings, who spoke on behalf of the city, and F. T. Duhring.

Dancing followed and was kept up until midnight.

An Open Letter to the Public

Editor Sonoma Index-Tribune—

Dear Sir: I notice that in your last issue your El Verano correspondent in speaking of my possible candidacy in the proposed Supervisorial recall election, gives the inference that my past life cannot stand the light of publicity. I desire to say in reference to the inuendo as to my shady past that my life has been an open book and that I challenge him to produce any truthful statements as to anything that I have done at any time that will not bear the closest scrutiny. Furthermore I beg to say that I have had no intention of being a candidate in the coming election. I think you owe it to me in a spirit of fair play to publish this note.

Very respectfully,
J. M. ALLISON.

Congregational Church June 22d

Morning worship, 11 a. m. The Pastor will show the dynamic now moving the world. It always has done it and always will do it. Everybody has his own conception of God, but the question for each man should be, is it the right conception. How are you going to know if you keep away from the place where God is revealed?

Evening worship, at 8 p. m. There is a crown of life Eternal for every one, but how is everyone to get it? If I want ten pounds of sugar I don't go to the postoffice for it, but in church matters some people act that way. Come to church and we will tell you about it. The way to get ready for death is in living honestly. Give to man what belongs to him and to God what belongs to Him.

The U. S. census says about St. Louis that 13 per cent of its people are Protestants, 31 per cent are Catholics and 56 per cent of them are nothing. Too bad. In Sonoma we must get down off the fence next Sunday and be something.

E. J. Franquelin, engineer on the Shasta division, S. P. Co., after spending several weeks the guest of his family, left for Dunsmuir last Saturday morning to resume his duties at the throttle.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NOTES AND HAPPENINGS IN TOWN.

Doings of the Various Sets in this City and Its Immediate Vicinity—The Goings and Comings and Other Items of General Interest.

Frido Clewe spent Saturday and Sunday in Sacramento.

George Carpenter was a visitor to Napa Junction last Monday.

Miss Susie Long is here from the city visiting Sonoma friends.

Mrs. E. Harvey journeyed down to the metropolis Saturday for a visit.

John J. Ryan came up from the City Sunday and spent the day with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Caukin and little daughter spent Saturday in the Exposition City.

Miss Janet Munfey was home for a visit with her folks the fore part of the week.

Miss Isabel Trudgen was a visitor in Oakland and San Francisco Saturday and Sunday.

Al Becker of the metropolis has been sojourning at one of the valley resorts the past week.

Dorothy Leiser of San Francisco has been the guest of Miss Florence Green the past week.

Earnest L. Finley, of the Press Democrat, Santa Rosa, was a well-known visitor here Saturday.

K. Perrin, assistant cashier in the First National Bank, spent the week-end in the metropolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. P. Hill of Eldridge were passengers to San Francisco Saturday morning.

Mrs. L. Breitenbach and daughter, Miss Gertrude, were shopping in Santa Rosa Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. S. Ciucci and daughter Miss Amelia were south-bound passengers on Saturday morning's train.

Dr. and Mrs. Leix entertained a few of their immediate friends at a dinner party Saturday evening.

Geo. McNab made a flying trip to the Bay City Sunday afternoon returning home early Monday morning.

The concert given by the Pasamonte trio in Union Hall on Friday evening of last week, for the benefit of the Congregational Church, brought out a fair sized audience.

Arthur Drake, formerly with the California Telephone & Light Company, has gone to Modesto, where he will take charge of his father's large ranch near that place.

George Batchelor, an old-time resident of this city, was here several days this week, after an absence of twenty-six years. George found many of his old-time friends here who received him cordially. He is now a resident of San Francisco and has prospered during his long absence.

The Public Library will be opened to the public every afternoon from now on. The hours will be from 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p. m. during the summer months. From July 1st, residents outside the municipality, not taxpayers therein, will be charged fifty cents a year for each card.

Adam Adler, the well-known and popular lumber man of this place, was tendered a birthday surprise party by his wife, Mrs. Adler, at their beautiful home on Spain street on Thursday evening of last week. The spacious rooms were prettily decorated with cut flowers and greens. About thirty relatives and friends of the couple were present and spent the evening in dancing, singing and the playing of games. Delicious refreshments were served.

N. S. G. W. Dance Saturday Night a Success

One of the most successful and enjoyable dances was ever held here was that of the Native Sons given in Union Hall last Saturday evening. The hall was prettily decorated for the occasion and presented a most artistic appearance. Dancing commenced at nine o'clock and continued into the wee hours of the morning. About midnight a delicious ravioli supper was served in the dining room of the Union Hotel, which was greatly enjoyed by all.

The Pauli-Johnson-Hansen orchestra furnished excellent music, rendering all the late and popular music. The committee in charge are receiving congratulations on all sides on the success of the affair.

Shelving the "Old Man"

Edna K. Wooley, a young woman writer of ability, in discussing the "shelving of father," indulges in some trueisms that have come under the personal observation of many of our people here at home. Right here we wish to remark father is an old dotard when he permits himself to be shelved. Among other things the writer remarks in putting in a good word for the "old man" of the family:

"We often hear of the old mother laid 'on the shelf,' but isn't it actually a fact that it is just as often—if not oftener—that father is shelved by his family?"

"How many middle-aged fathers do you know who are held in highest esteem by their children and whose opinion of comfort are really considered of first importance by their wives?"

"It's largely the fault of the wife if the children grow up regarding their father as something to be tolerated only because he is the provider. She lacks in loyalty, somehow, to the man who is sacrificing much for her just as she is sacrificing for him."

"All the sacrificing isn't on the part of the wife, and she is not the one who has the hard times or performs all the unpleasant duties. Nor is she the one who bestows all the favors. Neither is she the possessor of all the culture or good ancestral blood."

"But when her children are still infants many a mother begins to instill in them the idea of mother's superiority over father, and as the American child is left mostly under the mother's influence, the time comes when this idea is rooted and flourishes, and father becomes a sort of hanger-on to the family circle."

"Some of the very best men, husbands willing and glad to do everything in their power to provide for their families and make them happy, meet this fate."

"They see all the joys of fatherhood leaving them as the children grow older. In time they are even deprived of the companionship of their wives, who are more interested in the children's concerns than in the father, whose love and earnest endeavor helped those children to maturity."

"It's not so much of a joke as it's a sad truth that so many fathers must smoke the pipe of loneliness on the back porch or in the basement, with only the dog for company—if the wife allows a dog about the premises."

"Yet, do you ever hear these men complain?"

Woman's Christian Temperance

Union and the Red Light Law.

At a recent meeting of the County Executive Board of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, held in Petaluma, it was the sense of the members that some provision be made for the inmates of the houses of ill-fame when they shall have been compelled to leave their present quarters when the Red Light law goes into effect.

We rise to remark that the efforts of the W. C. T. U. ladies in that direction are well-timed and ought to succeed. To be candid, however, we fear those efforts will go for naught. We take it that the harlots of the Red Light districts are capable of looking out for themselves and after being driven from their present haunts we fear these outcasts of society will work their way into respectable hotels, boarding houses and even private families as domestics and pretending to be what they are not can work a deal of harm by mixing in with the better elements of society.

We would suggest that if the Woman's Christian Temperance Union desires to do society a good turn that it advocate the referendum and recall on the Red Light law—a measure that is really vicious and a menace to society.

STRUCK BY FREIGHT

TRAIN AND KILLED

An Employee on the Spreckels Ranch the Victim

As a special freight train of the Southern Pacific Co. approached a point on the road between Sonoma and Agua Caliente last Thursday morning at one o'clock, it ran over and instantly killed Fred Weyand, an old employee on the Spreckels ranch. The unfortunate man was returning to the ranch from Agua Caliente when struck by the train and it is presumed he was walking along the track in a preoccupied mood and did not hear the approach of the train until too late to get out of the way.

The deceased was about 50 years of age and leaves a nineteen-year-old daughter, who had arrived here only the day before the tragedy to visit her father.

An inquest was held Thursday afternoon by Coroner Blackburn developed the fact that the deceased had come to his death accidentally and the jury so decided.

Your confidence is what Studebaker seeks to keep

Possessing this confidence, we have never tried to produce a cheap wagon. We could, but we don't dare try the experiment. Our constant aim has been to produce the best wagon.

And in living up to this highest standard, we have won and hold—the confidence and good-will of hundreds of thousands of farmers all over the world. Studebaker wagons are built to last, to do a day's work every day, to stand up under stress and strain and to make the name Studebaker stand for all that is best in vehicles.

Don't accept any other wagon represented to be just as good as a Studebaker. The substitute may be cheaper, but it isn't up to Studebaker standards, and you can't afford to buy it.

For business or pleasure, there is a Studebaker vehicle suited to your requirements. Farm wagons, trucks, business wagons, surreys, buggies, runabouts, pony carriages—each the best of its kind. Harness also—of the same high Studebaker standard.

"Easy Jim" Tells in an Interesting Way all About the Week's Happenings in and About His Section of the Valley.

John Murray and family spent Sunday in the city.

Harry Kizer was a visitor in the metropolis Tuesday.

Miss Jessie Hiser was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Batto on Sunday last.

Edward Laveroni, a young business man of San Francisco, was a visitor to this place on Sunday last.

The cherry crop is about picked in this vicinity and while the quality was good the crop was rather light.

Mrs. Henry Pape went to the Bay City Monday morning to spend the week with relatives and friends.

Marshall James Albertson, F. Sprague and James Maffei of Sonoma visited in this vicinity Wednesday afternoon.

Under the skillful care of trainer Al Miller the blooded horses of Major Bowhill's stable are getting into fine condition.

The first carload of choice hay from this part of the valley left Batto's spur on last Monday's freight consigned to San Francisco.

Arthur Batto motored to Petaluma on Wednesday where he had business to transact. Mrs. Arthur and Miss Louise Batto were his guests.

W. R. Hansen, Sonoma's popular and well-known butcher, spent Wednesday in Vineburg, shaking hands with his many friends who were glad to see him.

Mrs. Chas. Bundschu of San Francisco arrived on Wednesday morning's train and will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bundschu at Rhinefarm.

Mrs. Virgil Bolotti of Sonoma and Mrs. Edward Geophert of San Francisco were the guests of Mrs. D. Colli on Thursday afternoon of last week at her pretty home Bird Nest Cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hepworth of Tacoma Washington are the guests of Mrs. Hepworth's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. Barron, at their home near Buena Vista.

Mrs. Walter Hyde, daughter Kathryn and a few lady friends have arrived at the Hyde home-stand where they intend to stay two weeks. They are all from San Francisco.

The Bachhus Club of San Francisco held its annual high jinks at the old spot at Rhinefarm on Saturday evening last. About thirty-five members were present and all had a grand time.

A carload of A-1 box shoos landed at Batto's spur Tuesday and all day long teams were hauling them away. The car contained between eight and ten thousand boxes.

Wedded in San Francisco.

Miss A. Ruby McCloskey, daughter of M. McCloskey, a summer resident of El Verano, was quietly married to Charles Waderlow, Saturday evening at five o'clock. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Father John Byrne, formerly of the Sonoma Catholic church, at St. Mary's Cathedral, San Francisco. The bride was beautifully gowned in white brocade and was attended by her sisters, Misses Ruth and Maud McCloskey. Mrs. Gertrude Stafford presided at the organ. After a short honeymoon spent in the north, the young couple will occupy a beautifully furnished apartment in the Western Addition near her parents. The bride received many handsome and valuable gifts. Her marriage will be quickly followed by her sister's, Mrs. Stafford, to the well-known hardware drummer, Lee J. Fitzpatrick.

Appropriation of $2,000 Toward Restoring Sonoma's Ancient Mission

Among the appropriation bills signed by Governor Johnson last Monday was the one appropriating $2,000 to be applied toward restoring the old Mission San Francisco de Solano built in this city by the Franciscan friars in 1823, which was partially restored a few years ago on an appropriation of $5,000 which was found to be inadequate. The additional appropriation will now complete the restoration.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

All the baseball fans in this part of the valley attended the ball game at Boyes Springs Sunday last.

Miss Mae Bosch, one of Vineburg's fair young ladies, was the guest of Miss Mary Batto on Monday afternoon.

We hear that our ex-Mayor has taken a contract to shear sheep out near El Verano and up to this writing he had two sheep sheared with more coming.

Gus Rouque has started to bale hay and from the looks of things he will have a good run as he has a heavy-weight crew to back him up.

All of Vineburg's society people attended the ball given by the N. S. G. W. on Bear Flag evening. Of course they all had a fine time. Leave that to the Native Sons.

Arthur Batto motored to Boyes Springs on Sunday last to witness the ball game. He had as guests Mrs. Arthur Batto, Misses Jessie Hiser and Mary Batto and Eddie Laveroni of San Francisco.

Last Sunday a Ford automobile got the best of the man at the wheel and for a short time did some funny circus stunts. It ran across the railroad tracks and butted into everything worth bumping into and at last made a shoot for Dolph Rubke's store, but he only laughed at it. The auto looked like a strawberry struck by lightning when it came to a standstill.

Umpire McNab Replies to the Baseball Public

In last Tuesday's Expositor there appeared a letter written by a Glen Ellen baseball fan who very modestly calls himself a learned student of the national pastime. The gentleman has doubtless seen a few games of ball, and he needs to complete his base ball education is a book of rules—price 10 cents.

According to his view, the base-runners on second and third base scored even if Canavari was out at second base. In reply to this argument, I will state that there were already two men out when the batter, Canavari, hit the ball. I called him out for failing to touch "first base" and when Sonoma's pitcher finally threw the ball to first base, the put-out was regularly made there.

Let us suppose another case: There are two men out and a man on second and third base, respectively. The batter hits a slow ground ball to the short-stop. The batter starts for first base and runs by the bag without touching it. The short-stop throws the ball to first base, but the first baseman misses it. Meanwhile, the runner, who has not yet touched first base, goes to second and the other two runners cross the home plate. The first baseman retrieves the ball and touches first base retiring the last batter. They could run their heads off but there would be no score.

Last Sunday before the game manager McDewitt asked manager Trusty if he wanted two umpires to officiate. Trusty replied that he would be willing to use umpire McNab, saying "McNab has umpired for me several times, and has always been square." So it was agreed that I should be umpire.

Everything went along smoothly until I called Canavari out for failing to touch first base. Then I was transformed from a "square man" to a crook. The Glen Ellen team was called off the diamond and Trusty said his men would quit right there and then.

McDewitt did not want them to quit. It would have proved the Glen Ellen team yellow, caused the El Verano Development Association a great deal of unnecessary bother and would have done the game incalculable harm and no good. Therefore McDewitt yielded, conceding Glen Ellen two runs in order to keep peace in the family. Now, Mr. Glen Ellen fan, who were the sports and who were the pickers? Tell us, who quit and started for the gate?

As for the assertion that I insulted and abused manager Trusty, I do not think it necessary to even deny this. To do so would be superfluous.

The "learned student of the national pastime" concludes his letter by saying "we vote McNab a poor sport," and yet he was not game enough to sign his own name to his screed.

Yours for clean baseball,
GEORGE MCNAB,
Sonoma, California.

His Convention Met in Woodman's Hall Last Thursday Night and Put Through Its Slate

Elmer W. Kilgore, an attorney of Santa Rosa, with his residence in Kenwood, will be Bigelow's recall candidate against Supervisor Weise. It was so decided by a packed convention consisting of Bigelow adherents, for the most part hailing from Vallejo township towns and other distant places.

Ex-State Senator, Murphy of Cotati was made chairman of the meeting, and it was a most fitting selection as Murphy, like Bigelow, is a disappointed and sore-balled office-seeker, having been defeated for the office of Sheriff of this county some twelve years ago. He called the convention of sore-heads to order and announced that about two-thirds of the recall petitions had been signed and that the requisite number of signatures would be forthcoming about the first of July.

Of course the recall election will be a joke all around except for the taxpayers who will have to foot the bills to carry out a one-man spite work contest to recall a Supervisor who refused to take dictation from boss Bigelow.

That Weise will be victorious in the recall election by a tremendous majority is conceded by every one except those who are so blind they will not see.

By Art Hickman.

Well here we go! We're off. The first nail has been driven in the new bridge at Black Point. Did you see that representative body of citizens who turned out at Boyes Springs Sunday? Well, the benefit ball game was a tremendous success from every standpoint. The valley people more than showed their interest in the progressive movement that has started throughout Marin, Sonoma and Napa counties and with their Sunday regalia on all hid themselves to Boyes Springs to donate what they could and show their faces, which of course meant as much, if not more, to the hard working committee, than did the price of admission. Many people who asked at the gate what the price of admission was to see the Sonoma's and Glen Ellen's clash said it was too reasonable for the amount of good it was to them and voluntarily gave three and four times the price of a ticket to encourage the never-tiring working crew of the El Verano Development Association. This is the body of men whom are looked upon to save autos and all other conveyances an unnecessary sixteen miles from San Francisco when wanting to motor to the Sonoma Valley and an unnecessary twenty-one miles for the people bound for Napa Valley. Isn't it some responsibility for such a young organization to undertake? Not for the man that can see the velvet path that follows such a taste and that is the sterling quality this enterprising bunch of men are made of. Sunday was their first venture to ascertain whether or not they had the sympathy and co-operation of the laborer, farmer, banker, and the reward was theirs. Every auto, auto-bus, rig, motorcycle, saddle, and pair of feet turned out in the game. Imagine Mayor Cummings carrying Boyes Water for 10c a bottle through the grandstand and never letting you rest until he obtained a thin dime from you. Just think of "Doc" Parramore rushing like mad from one bench to another with the usual "Imperial" in his mouth shouting "fresh peanuts right off the ice."

And another hero was big Jim Baines who ruined a summer outfit dishing out cornucopias for the more delicate palates. Now comes Tom and Leo Baines, Rudy Litchenberg, "Doc" Thompson, Senator Sprague and if space would permit many more, who donned aprons and forgot their foolish pride, dug right in and showed the visitors that they meant business and that they were not afraid to work nor afraid of work. After the mad shouts of these canvassers, who had properly fed their audience, had subsided, Senator Sprague strutted upon the diamond to announce that every peanut that was eaten, every cornucopia that was done away with and every bottle of water purchased was another spike in the new bridge, as every penny was to go to that fund. Then the liberal valleties ordered a second round and then the game was called. Much excitement prevailed throughout the entire game, there being a keen rivalry for supremacy on the diamond for some time between the two valley towns, namely Sonoma and Glen Ellen. Managers Trusty and McDewitt came to terms at 2 o'clock and "Gibraltar" Jim Baines stepped into the pitcher's box and if not accurately pitched the first ball and the contest was started.

Both teams were overflowing with confidence when they faced one another and a good lively game was assured. McNab of Sonoma was umpire and was compelled to make many a close decision and succeeded in so doing, of which he is quite capable, but the managers thought differently and he retired to make room for Rudy Litchenberg, who was a star himself in ball-dom not long ago, and he officiated the balance of the game which resulted in the Glen Ellen's being victorious over the Sonoma's with a score 6 to 2.

Young Boccoli, the youthful twirler, proved himself a valuable boy and you can look for better from him. Sonoma has a clever man in Pete Boccoli. Block, who worked behind the bat and stopped all of the twists and curves also deserves much credit and praise for his day's work. The Sonoma team and its followers still think they are the better team and a contest has been arranged for the morning of July 4th at 9.45 on the Sonoma diamond. This return match should prove very interesting.

Archie McKiver was on hand with his panama and one Mr. Allison was inquiring who he was and where he could be found. I almost told him.

F. Reide and Russell Warden of San Rafael passed through here on the last leg of their Lake Tahoe trip in their Buick.

Next Saturday evening a bevy of men consisting of the "Raddish Club" are due at the resort. They number about 75 and a general good time is a certainty.

Irving C. Ackerman, Director of the Orpheum Circuit and President of the Western States Vaudeville Association, accompanied by Assistant District Attorney Morris Oppenheim and J. Landsborough, Secretary and Counsel for the Orpheum Circuit, are to be the guests of the writer over the week end and will be shown every point of interest in the valley. They will tour in a large Locomobile.

GREAT RACE MEET ON JULY FOURTH

The Sonoma Driving Club Will Strive to Make it the Biggest Ever—Some of the Horses that Will Contend for the Purse

BY HARRY BELL

The Index-Tribune has turned out some handsome posters for the Sonoma Driving Club announcing its programme for July 4th. They are a credit to Mr. Granice and his mechanical skill and should convince the business men of Sonoma's home industry.

The Sonoma Driving Club will give a race meet on the 4th of July which promises to eclipse any meet given heretofore. Sonoma is a very enthusiastic horse town and the horsemen here are lending every effort to make this meet the best ever.

Joe Ryan, the well-known local driver, is conditioning a string which comprises that well-known gelding T. D. W., 2:13; Miss Rooney, a Washington McKinney, and Annie Rooney, a mare that belongs to Rudolph Spreckels, is stepping some nice miles and is showing every indication of making a good race prospect. Clara C., the property of Tom Millerick, is moving along nicely. Emmet Mullen's Thomas Mack has been some miles around 2:25 and for a green one looks good. "Jimmie" Sterling, Ryan's second trainer, is handling a green three-year-old by Mack and Lady Glenway, who stepped a mile Wednesday in 2:24, last half in 1:11 and last quarter in .32. This one looks like he'll do. Ryan is also handling a very nifty three-year-old filly, Miss Offutt, by Wayland W. and Florence Green. Mike Lornergan has Myrtle, who has been miles this year around 2:15, also Lena D. who showed a mile the other day in 2:18. Mike C., 2:13, half mile track, is looking better than ever and we all look for a grand contest in the free-for-all this year. Dupont also has a nice looking three-year-old filly by Wayland W. out of Babe by Philosopher, who has been some miles around three minutes.

We are expecting a large delegation from San Francisco also horses from Santa Rosa, Petaluma and Vallejo.

All horsemen will be well treated and every courtesy shown them by that prince of fellows, Joe Ryan.

Local Brevities

Chas. McDewitt spent Tuesday and Wednesday last in the Bay City.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Kiser received a visit from the stork last Saturday who left them a little daughter.

Jos. Gallo, hailing from San Francisco, died at the Helvetia Hotel, El Verano, Tuesday morning. The cause of his death was a hemorrhage, due to a complication of disorders.

Dr. Bateman, having procured a building and lots in Berkeley, is busily engaged in fitting up same as a veterinary hospital and will find it necessary to spend a good deal of his time there for the next three weeks when he will move there to reside.

Nick Kiser, residing on the Kiser ranch near TSW, met with a painful accident one day the latter part of last week. He was stacking hay with a derrick fork when in some manner he ran the prongs of the fork into his right side between the ribs, inflicting an ugly wound. He was taken to the Leix sanitarium for treatment and at latest accounts is getting along nicely.
